

The Cost of States Favoring In-State Contractors

Preference policies artificially decrease the cost estimates provided by in-state producers. The full cost is still paid by taxpayers.

