Who Is Not Paying the Income Tax?

More than 4 in 10 American households—or upwards of 76 million households—did not pay income tax to the federal government last year.