PETER J. BOETTKE

Peter J. Boettke is a University Professor of Economics and Philosophy at George Mason University and the Vice President for Advanced Study and Director of the F. A. Hayek Program for Advanced Study in Philosophy, Politics, and Economics at the Mercatus Center at George Mason University. Through an analytical framework strongly influenced by the paradigm of Austrian economics, as well as other intellectual traditions personified by thinkers in the mainline of economic thought, Boettke has developed a robust political economy research program that expands an understanding of how individuals acting through the extended market order can promote freedom and prosperity for society, and how the institutional arrangements shape, reinforce, or inhibit the individual choices that lead to sustained economic development. His latest book is The Struggle for a Better World (2021, Mercatus Center at George Mason University).

DEIRDRE N. MCCLOSKEY

Deirdre N. McCloskey is a Distinguished Professor Emerita of Economics and of History, and Professor Emerita of English and of Communication at the University of Illinois at Chicago and a Distinguished Affiliated Fellow with the F. A. Hayek Program for Advanced Study in Philosophy, Politics, and Economics at the Mercatus Center at George Mason University. Trained at Harvard as an economist, by her own account she "drifted," writing on economic theory, economic history, philosophy, rhetoric, feminism, ethics, transgender advocacy, statistical theory, politics, and law. Her latest book is Beyond Positivism, Behaviorism, and Neoinstitutionalism in Economics (2022, Chicago University Press).

MARIO J. RIZZO

Dr. Mario J. Rizzo is a professor of economics, Director of the Foundations of the Market Economy Program at New York University, and Co-director of the Classical Liberal Institute at NYU Law School. Professor Rizzo's major fields of research have been law-and-economics and ethics-and economics, as well as Austrian economics. He has been the director of at least fifteen major research conferences, the proceedings of which have often been published. He is the author of many articles in law journals and in more traditional economic outlets. He is the author of Escaping Paternalism (2019, Cambridge University Press) along with Glen Whitman.

VIVIANA A. ZELIZER

Viviana A. Zelizer is the Lloyd Cotsen '50 Professor of Sociology at Princeton University. She has published books on the development of life insurance, the changing value of children, the place of money in social life and the economics of intimacy. She has also studied topics ranging from economic ethics to consumption practices. A collection of her essays appears in Economic Lives: How Culture Shapes the Economy. Focusing on Princeton undergraduates and in collaboration with Lauren Gaydosh, she is currently working on a study of college students' cross-class economic transactions. She is the author of Economic Lives (2010, Princeton University Press).

WI-FI INFORMATION:

MARRIOTT CONFERENCE

WI-FI CODE: MAS2022

PRESENTING POWERPOINTS IN SESSIONS

- For presenters who wish to use their own laptops for presentations, an HDMI cable will be available in each room to connect to the projector. Simply disconnect the HDMI cable from the room's computer to connect it to your own, making sure to reconnect it to the room's computer after presenting.
- For those who prefer to load their presentation onto the room's computer, please follow these steps:
  - Load your presentation onto a USB drive (a USB drive will be provided in each room, or you may bring your own)
    - Note: Presentations should be compatible with Microsoft Office, in PDF form or accessible through the web.
  - Connect the USB drive to the room's computer
  - Open the file explorer (the icon is a manila folder)
    - Note: File explorer may automatically open when the USB drive is connected
  - Find your USB drive in the file explorer
  - Find your presentation under the USB drive and move it to the Desktop to find it easily.
  - Load your presentation

REQUESTING ASSISTANCE

- If you require assistance with a presentation or A/V issue, please contact Courtney Dunn at (757) 328-2575
